Horatian Editorial

Imminet mensis merito sacratus
Junio magno: rediviva rursus,
Jam voluptates proprias reportans,
Irruit Aestas.

Sole nunc gaudens puer exsolutus
(Negligens, heu. rerum operosiorum!)
Urget harpastum, natat atque currit
Jam pede laeto.

Annus evadit, Schola dissipatur
Faustaue erumpet manus universa
(Alter indoctus, bene doctus alter),
Non reditura.

Qui tamen venit puer imperitus,
Sive demissus comitumne Ductor
Exit e porta veteri, manebit
Semper Alumnus.

Housmanian Adaptation

'Tis time, I think, the month were here
A Junius made his own,
And Summer coming crowned the year
With joys it brings alone.

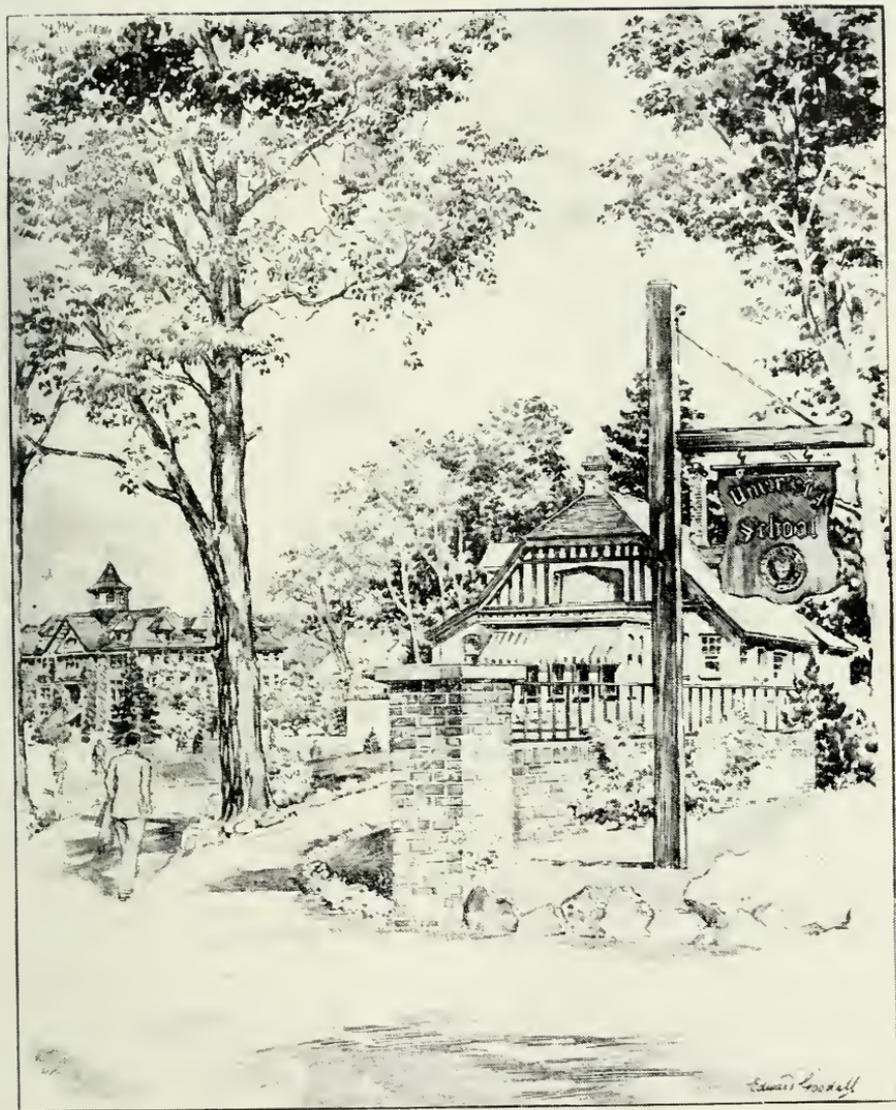

With little lust to knit the brow
And fain to feel the sun
Are lads who chase the leather now.
And lads who swim and run.

The year is gone, the Grades disperse,
Learnéd, or loth to learn,
There leaves for better or for worse
Youth that will not return.

Alike the scholar and the dunce
Have lived their little day;
From Gates a New Boy entered once
An Old Boy goes his way.

But leave you with the lowlier throng
Or with the Prefect band,
The School will mind you, lad, so long
As Tolmie's top shall stand.

MAIN ENTRANCE

SCHOOL NOTES

The enrolment is 135 Boarders and 98 Day Boys. There is no immediate prospect of any major increase on these figures since practically all grades are full and the number of Boarders is limited by the accommodation available.

We now have a full-time Chaplain — the Rev. John Page, B.A. (Cantab). Sunday Services are held in the Assembly Hall and the long trek to St. Luke's — not always in the best of weather — is a thing of the past. After 50 years' association, however, the ties are not easily broken, nor would we wish them to be. There are Memorials in St. Luke's to those Old Boys who fell in the World War. There is a School Crest on the Memorial Pulpit to a former Headmaster — the Rev. G. Scarrett — and the Rector, the Rev. Ragg, has now had the happy idea of commemorating the long and close association of the School with St. Luke's by a stained glass window depicting a University schoolboy kneeling in prayer, close by the plaque which commemorates our fallen.

A great many Old Boys were confirmed at St. Luke's and it is felt that many who worshipped there would approve of this idea and would welcome the opportunity to contribute towards the cost, which is expected to be in the region of $350. A couple of dollars or so from those Old Boys who, perhaps, have nostalgic memories of that Sunday morning walk or the Annual Church Parade, would quickly raise the sum required and, if forwarded to the Headmaster, would be acknowledged gratefully. Such donations are deductible for Income Tax purposes and a full accounting will be given.

There have been other Staff changes this year. Mr. Hird left November 1st. for England, to get married, with everyone's good wishes for his happiness, and Mr. Wilson made a welcome return to the School to take his place. Mr. Creek resigned his Housemastership at Dauntsey's School in England to replace Mr. Grey as House Tutor of Brentwood.

Mr. O'Kane has filled the vacancy created by Mr. Proudman and once again there is music in the School and much promise for the future. Dr. Stiller has come from Germany, via Ontario, to assist Mr. Hinton in the Labs. and Mr. Orr from South Africa, via Oxford, to help in Harvey House.

Brown Hall functioned from the beginning of the School year and has become so much a part of the School that it is almost impossible to visualise how we ever managed without it. Christmas Dinner in that setting provided a most memorable occasion. The solid oak tables with the silver cups reflecting the glass and the bright red candles; the beautiful baskets of fruit and the joyous singing of the boys and their guests, produced a scene and an atmosphere which few who were privileged to enjoy it will ever forget.

The circulation of the "Illustrated London News" is world wide. We were much honoured therefore to be represented in the edition of March 7th by four pages of pictures and copy as the first Canadian school to be included in the series "The Education of British Youth." The drawings were made by Mr. Edward Goodall and the originals have been presented to the school by Mr. Bruce Ingram, the Editor of "The Illustrated London News" with permission to reprint in the School Magazine and prospectus.

The new Tennis Courts, the gift of Mrs. W. L. McCormick of Tacoma, are practically complete and everyone is looking forward to using them with great enthusiasm.

During the summer holidays the quad was dug up and re-metalled. The cost was great and we hope that it will now stand up to Cadet Parades for many years to come. At the same time, new copper water piping was laid from Harvey House to School House and at this moment electricians are working on the complete re-wiring of the whole School. Such costly maintenance has to come from revenue and it is inevitable therefore that fees must be raised in the near future to meet these heavy expenses.

The Southwest playing field was re-seeded in the Spring and despite the gulls' activities the result has been successful.

Thanks to Mr. Logan Mayhew the grounds are now practically surrounded by a fine fence which adds considerably to the appearance of the whole and complements the general improvement to the grounds themselves. During the year many Chestnuts, Maples and other trees have been planted and the future will undoubtedly justify the efforts of the present.

The First XV, having won 14 out of 17 matches—one was drawn—celebrated with a Dinner at the Empress Hotel. There were no First XV colours returned this year: the Captain, Donald Beban, has a hard task ahead to build up the team, but this has been done before and doubtless will be done again.

The School was saddened by the death of Mrs. Davidson on January 10th., after a long period of failing health. For nearly 30 years she and her husband had been closely associated with the School. She is greatly missed not only by "Billy", to whom our deepest sympathy is extended, but by all who knew her.

The Board of Governors has been strengthened by the addition to their number of the following: Air Marshal, Sir Philip Livingston, K.B.E., C.B., A.F.C., R. H. B. Ker, Esq., Logan Mayhew, Esq., and H. B. Renwick, Esq. Mr. Ker and Mr. Renwick are Old Boys and Mr. Mayhew is an Old Brentonian while Sir Philip, although educated principally in England, is a close and interested observer of our education here. The school extends to these gentlemen a very sincere and warm welcome.

E. G. BEAUMONT

The picture above will conjure happy memories for many generations of boys past and present. In 1918 fourteen boys from the Orient who were unable to go home for the Summer holidays were entertained for the duration by Capt. Beaumont on his property—Discovery Island. That particular group of school boys included the now President of the Board of Governors, Brig. F. N. Cabeldu, C.B.E., D.S.O., E.D. and never a summer has passed since but some of our boys and Masters too have enjoyed trips on his boats and a warm welcome to "Discovery."

We all hope that Capt. Beaumont may enjoy many years yet where-in to be host to Scouts, Guides, Societies and most of all to the continuing generations here.

SPEECH DAY

The fifty-third Annual Speech Day was held Saturday, June 6th., with The Hon. Robert W. Mayhew, P.C., LL.D., to present the prizes and to give the address.

Mr. Mayhew's review of the Cadet Corps in 1957 was photographed in colour for the school record and it was with special pleasure therefore that the school welcomed him again as the Guest of Honour.

The proceedings opened with "O Canada" followed by a reading from Ecclesiastes XII by D. W. Beban. L. E. Devlin then played the accompaniment to the perennial favourite "Worship the Lord" and the Headmaster read the annual report wherein the various successes of the school during the year, both in the classroom and on the playing fields are recorded. These events and occurrences are related elsewhere in this Journal and it will be sufficient here to record only the closing sentences of the report:

"We started the year with more than the usual number of difficulties. Dining tables, not produced on time, caused complete disruption to classrooms. The swimming pool boiler refused to function. There were epidemics of cold and flu with one boy reported from home as "under suspicion of polio" — this complaint was eventually diagnosed as dermatitis. I leave you to imagine the consternation which that faulty suspicion caused — disciplinary troubles of far more than customary difficulty, the new nurse recalled to England within a month of her arrival and so on; but gradually these difficulties were overcome and the school has emerged stronger and healthier than before. It is in the fires of adversity that character is forged and while we could well do without many of the troubles which beset us it is through them that this school must grow in strength and spirit."

Mr. Mayhew then gave his address. He described in simple but most eloquent language the great desire for learning shown by the underprivileged peoples of the world and in particular those of the country he knew so well — Japan — to which he had been H.M. Canadian Ambassador during a most historic period. He talked of the children in the villages and their almost pathetic desire to improve their understanding and he urged the boys to realise more fully and to appreciate more truly the advantages of living in this great country of ours and the opportunities which the school — and especially this one — offered to them. So much is taken for granted. It is as well at times to pause and consider how much we owe and how fortunate we are.

The silence which greeted Mr. Mayhew was a tribute not only to the respect and affection in which he is held but also to the impression made on the boys by the address.

The Headmaster then called upon Mr. Mayhew to present the prizes and afterwards the Head Prefect, W. G. Lund, and the Chairman of the Governors thanked Mr. Mayhew warmly.

ATHLETICS

Sports training began as soon as the Track was marked at the beginning of the Summer Term. The taking of Standards began immediately and continued until the day before Sports Day. The total number of Standards attained again rose this year, Brentwood scoring 362 and Founders 347. Those boys completing all possible Standards were:

Brentwood: Blair, Coulson, Jones I, Rigos II, Stephen, Todd, Hawley.
Founders: Ashby, Dorland, Johnston, Milner, Ogle, Schmitt, Simpson I, Stene, Tassin.

The quarter-mile track was moved again this year, owing to the fact that one corner of the field had been seeded. This resulted in some sharp corners and an uphill grind to the finish.

The Quadrangular School Meeting was held at the School on the evening of May 22nd. We were glad to compete with Shawnigan again, and also to welcome St. George's and Qualicum, who were able to attend this year. It was once again apparent that we had no winning runners, though Connorton and Johnston both ran good seconds in the half and quarter mile respectively. Our successes came in the hurdles, won by Milner, and the shot and javelin, won by Bedard and Cressman. The final results were:—

1. Shawnigan	76
2. St. George's	62
3. University School	47
4. Qualicum	7

The Annual Athletic Sports took place on Saturday, June 6th. The weather was perfect for the competitors, and for the large assembly of Parents, Old Boys and Friends.

As the Juniors had had their Sports Day on the previous Friday, a more ambitious programme was arranged, six more field events being included. Results were quite good, though only one Record was broken (by Cressman in the under 16 hurdles). In the Open Javelin Cressman came within one foot of the old Record, a fine achievement and one which forecasts well for next year. On the track times were fair, notable achievements being by Lund I in the 100 yards, Connorton in the 880 yards and Milner in the 440 yards.

After the Sports tea was served, and the proceedings were then rounded off by Mr. A. Moilliet, Pres. of the Old Boys' Association, who presented the Prizes.

CROSS COUNTRY

The School Annual Cross Country was run, as usual, at the end of the Easter Term, 163 boys (42 of whom were Juniors) competing. Hudson I (Founders), Connorton (Brentwood) and Ogle (Founders) fought it out over the whole course, Hudson pulling away at the end to finish first and win the Old Boys' Cup. Connorton was a good second and Ogle a close third. Founders House with 2930 points won over Brentwood with 3413 points. Hudson II, who placed 15th., was the first Junior to finish and the winner of the Robertson Cup.

The School entered a team in the annual cross country race at Royal Roads and placed 8th. out of 13. The Winner's time was 21:57, and Hudson I, 31st. and our first man home, did well to record 25:07 in such good company. Morris returned a creditable 25:13, finishing 34th., while Gale, 43rd., Milner, 44th., and Stephen, 47th., completed the School team.

The Annual Run against Victoria High School was enlarged this year to include Shawnigan Lake School and St. George's School. The T. Eaton Co. have donated a Trophy for annual competition and the 1959 race was held on February 18th. at the School. As was expected Victoria High School were easy winners, and they were followed by Shawnigan Lake School, St. George's School and University School. The Winner's time for the run around the Upland Golf Course was a splendid 22:07. Connorton, Ogle, Radford I, Hudson I, Grubb I and Lund I represented the School and finished in the order shown.

RUGBY FOOTBALL

Only four members of the 1957-58 side were available and prospects for the coming season did not appear to be particularly bright. Lund I and Ogle, who were elected Captain and Vice-Captain respectively, were proven performers, but the task of filling eleven places was a heavy one. That this was done so successfully is to the credit of all, but particularly to Lund, who never spared himself on the field or off. Seldom has the School side been captained with greater zest, or more devotion to the tenets of spirit and physical condition. Of the sixteen matches played thirteen were won, two lost and one drawn. The side was beaten by St. George's in Vancouver much against the run of the play, but made no mistake in the return. The other loss was to Royal Roads, who were really a First Division team.

Colours were awarded to: N. I. Bedard, H. W. Johnston, M. J. Connorton and F. G. Allen. The full side was as follows: W. G. Lund (Capt.), I. C. G. Ogle (Vice-Capt.), M. J. Connorton, F. G. Allen, N. I. Bedard, H. W. Johnston, J. J. Andrews, G. M. Forrester, H. C. Stidham, J. R. G. Wenman, K. W. Bird, R. T. Wittke, L. P. Hudson, D. W. Beban and B. J. Phillips.

The Second Fifteen played seven matches, three of which were won and four lost. Successes were enjoyed against teams from Victoria High School, Oak Bay Wanderers and H.M.C.S. Venture, but the games with St. George's School and Shawnigan Lake School were lost, two of them by the narrowest of margins.

The Third Fifteen had an unbeaten season in its own class, and were defeated only by Qualicum College First Fifteen. It contained players of real promise, prominent among them being: Huston, Blair, Cressman, Angus, Sweeting, Irvine and Riebe.

The Fourth were also a keen group, among the more likely members being: Musgrave I, Chapman, Coulson and Lucie-Smith.

Both Third and Fourth Fifteens owe much to the boundless enthusiasm of Mr. Grey. The improvement in School Football at this level can be laid entirely to his credit. He will be sadly missed next year.

The House Match was won, after a keenly-fought game, by Founders House, who defeated Brentwood House 8-3. W. R. G. W.

FIRST FIFTEEN MATCHES

SCHOOL v. ROYAL ROADS 2nd. XV

The season opened at Royal Roads on October 4th. The School side were together for the first time and the opposition were quite inexperienced, but a reasonable game resulted, the School winning by a goal and three tries (14 points) to a try (3 points).

Throughout the first half the School had a wide advantage territorially, but the heeling from the loose was far too slow and only two tries were scored. The first went to Ogle early in the game, when he slipped through the defence following a tight scrum near the opponents' line. The try was obtained between the posts but Allen was not able to improve it. A little later Connorton took Wenman's pass to score a try which Allen goaled, and the School led 8-0.

Royal Roads opened their account immediately after half time, when some very slovenly play by Grubb I, the School full back, presented them with an unconverted try. They never threatened again, however, and the School were able to score two more tries, both by Connorton from passes by Wenman. Allen, who kicked badly, failed to convert either try. The School had many opportunities to add to their score but there was a general tendency, especially among the forwards, to hold the ball too long. Both Lund and Ogle played aggressive football, while the forwards, although packing badly and heeling poorly, showed promise.

SCHOOL v. VICTORIA HIGH SCHOOL

The School visited Victoria High School minus several of their regulars, but gave a good account of themselves in winning by a goal, a penalty goal, a dropped goal and a try (14 pts.) to a goal (5 pts.). Territorially there was little in it during the first half. Early in the game the School were saved by Bird, the full back whose timely tackle brought down the High School wing. A little later, however, the High School opened the scoring with a forward try far out and a splendid goal was kicked. The School had not threatened seriously at this point, but after Ogle had missed from a penalty Lund was more successful with a much more difficult one, and the High School led 5-3 at the breather. The School had been hard pressed on occasion and but for the excellent defensive kicking of Ogle might have been deeply in arrears.

Soon after the restart the School went ahead and, in a manner seldom seen, Sinclair, the left wing, moved in toward the middle and dropped an unexpected goal from the twenty-five. From then on, although play was largely between the twenty-fives, the High School seldom looked dangerous. The School added to their lead when bad tackling allowed Ogle to make ground through the middle, and when he was eventually brought down just short of the line Hudson was on hand to gather the loose ball and score. Ogle failed to convert. Toward the close the forward play was rather bitter and there were frequent stoppages of play for minor injuries. The School were now in control, however, and after several near things Wenman was given too much room at midfield and was able to give Connorton a well-judged pass and see him outdistance all opposition and score far out. Lund added the extra points, from a difficult angle, and the School had won 14-5.

They were full value for their win. Forward they more than held their own against heavy opposition. Lund was outstanding, Johnston prominent and Goodman promising. Behind the scrum Ogle was in a class by himself both in attack and defence. Stidham filled Allen's place at scrum half very creditably and Bird also had a good match.

SCHOOL v. ROYAL ROADS 2nd. XV

Playing at home the School were always on top and won by two goals and two tries (16 pts.) to a penalty goal (3 pts.). The School opened their account in the first five minutes, when the pack heeled from a tight scrum near the Royal Roads' line and Allen dodged over for Ogle to add the extra points. Continuing to dominate the game the School went further ahead when Clark I ran strongly to make ground on the left. When just short of the line and challenged he gave to Ogle, who scored far out but failed to improve his own try. Behind the scrum it was all School. There was a general willingness to pass, one particular movement in which Wenman, Connorton and Wittke were involved being especially praiseworthy. The next try came when a Royal Roads' player miskicked badly in his own twenty-five. Both Wenman and Lund were on hand and in the race to accept the unexpected gift the latter was successful. Allen failed to goal. Just before half time Ogle took Allen's pass from the base of the scrum and went through on his own to score. Lund added the extra points and the School led 16-0.

The second half was cut short because of failing light and, with the School easing up somewhat and Royal Roads marking much more effectively. the game was more even. Though definitely the better side, the School were unable to score again and were forced to concede a penalty goal. All the outsides played useful games but their reply to some very close marking in the second half was not adequate. The forwards more than held their own. Lund was, as usual, excellent, and Johnston once again caught the eye.

SCHOOL v. QUALICUM COLLEGE

This match, the first ever played between the respective First Fifteens, was won by the School by five goals and four tries (37 pts.) to a goal (5 pts.).

The game opened sensationally when, in the first two minutes of play, Wenman's casual pass to Connorton was intercepted just outside the School twenty-five. Bird, the School full back, had no chance and the try was obtained between the posts and the goal kicked. The School opened their account a little later when Ogle put a long rolling kick through the defence. Wittke, alert and full of dash, gathered cleanly and scored a splendid try at the flag. Ogle failed to convert. The second try was also Wittke's when he took a pass from Bedard to score at the flag. Ogle again failed to convert. Connorton then added a try which Lund failed to goal, after which, just before half time, Ogle used his dummy to penetrate the centre and Goodman, in close support, took a pass on the goal line to score a try which Lund improved. The School led 14-5 at half time but had been fully held forward by a lighter but very spirited pack.

After the restart the School ran away with the match. First Lund scored on his own, and then Ogle added two more, all three being splendidly goaled by Lund. Goodman then scored his second try from a scramble on the line but Allen failed to convert. Wenman scored the final try when he put himself through with a dummy and reached the line on his own. Lund again kicked the goal.

Against close-marking and quick-breaking opposition the School backs did not look particularly impressive. The forwards, for whom Lund was outstanding and Bedard much improved, got on top in the second half, but their heeling from the loose was far too slow. Lund had a field day with his place kicking. He was successful with five out of six attempts and of these four were magnificent shots. Qualicum were outweighed and outmatched but gave a very plucky and creditable display.

SCHOOL v. THE OLD BOYS

This most enjoyable fixture resulted in a draw, the Old Boys obtaining a goal and two tries (11 pts.) and the School a goal, a penalty goal and a try (11 pts.).

The Old Boys, with strength behind the scrum, opened strongly and were soon six points ahead through tries scored by Getz. Neither try was converted and the Old Boys led 6-0 at half time. The School, who were without Ogle, their outside half, were badly outplayed behind the scrum and, although the forwards played up well, they were lucky not to be deeper in arrears.

The School forwards, with Lund, Johnston and Bedard in the van, played with great spirit after half time and the School had far more of the game territorially. The Old Boys increased their lead, however, when Barker broke away in midfield and Calton, who was in support, took his pass to score easily. Barker kicked a splendid conversion. The School then replied when the scrum pushed over from a set scrum on the line. Beban was credited with the try, which Lund goaled. Continuing to have the better of the argument the School scored again when Lund was successful with a penalty. In the latter stages the Old Boys were hard pressed and the School were most unlucky not to score when the Referee judged Connorton, who had gathered Wenman's nicely-judged kick ahead, off side. The School were not to be denied, however, a very fine try bringing them level. Wittke, cutting in cleverly, made ground through the middle before giving to Lund, who found Hudson up in support to take a well-judged pass to score. Lund failed to convert and a draw resulted. The School backs, without Ogle, were not happy, but the forwards, splendidly led by Lund, were impressive. H. Barker, C. Pollard and R. Calton were impressive for the Old Boys, who included some very fine performers of recent vintage, and others equally talented but of a somewhat more pre-historic era.

SCHOOL v. ST. GEORGE'S SCHOOL

Playing away the School were defeated by a goal and a try (8 pts.) to a try (3 pts.).

From the start the School exerted pressure and, with the slope and wind in their favour, kept the ball in their opponents' half. Seldom were St. George's able to relax and much of the time they were fighting tenaciously on their own line. On the other hand the School out-sides were not impressive and were too closely marked by faster and stronger men to enable them to finish. It was St. George's who, against the run of the play, opened the scoring. A nice movement developed at midfield and a centre, profiting by some indecisive tackling, easily ran around the School defence to score at the flag. The try was not converted. The School forwards then carried play to the St. George's line, where, after a period of heavy pressure, Allen dodged over to score near the posts. Lund failing to convert from an easy position. St. George's had had a very lucky first half. They had been forced to touch down again and again and apart from their one try had never seriously threatened. Two things saved them, first their own tackling, which was excellent throughout, and secondly the very large number of penalties given against the School for minor infractions. The School forwards bore the brunt and were superior in every phase of forward play except the tight scrum, where they were held.

On even terms at half time, the teams continued the forward battle after the restart. Though not dominating the game to quite the same extent as in the first half, the School had a distinct advantage territorially, but despite heroic efforts by their forwards were unable to score. The winning try was a fine individual effort. The School were pressing well inside their opponents' twenty-five when Ogle's pass rolled loose. The St. George's Captain quickly gained possession, made a little ground, kicked ahead over the full back and, the bounce of the ball favouring him, gathered cleanly to outpace the School defenders and score between the posts. The goal was kicked. Play continued very keen and spirited to the end but the marking was too close to give either set of backs much chance. St. George's looked to be better together behind the scrum, while the School lacked the cleverness and thrust to enable them to profit from the fine play of their forwards. Lund was magnificent in defeat, and Bedard had his best game of the season. Ogle and Allen, the halves, were adequate, while Wenman was cool under pressure in the centre and had a good match.

SCHOOL v. SHAWNIGAN LAKE SCHOOL

Playing away the School were successful in defeating Shawnigan Lake School by a penalty goal and a try (6 pts.) to nil.

There was snow on the ground in patches but the going was surprisingly good, with the ball reasonably dry. The School started slowly and for fifteen minutes Shawnigan were impressive, especially behind the scrum, where there was pace aplenty. Having weathered this period, however, the School, the forwards showing the way, improved steadily. They should have opened the scoring when Ogle, running on the blind side, made much ground on the touch line but was forced out at the flag when he attempted to cross standing up. The School were not to be denied, however, and Lund kicked a good penalty — quite a long shot but dead in front. Neither side was in danger again and a very even half ended with the School leading 3-0. They led because of the very fine play of their bigger forwards, the quick breaking and close marking of their back row and the very fine all-round play of Ogle, their outside half.

Throughout the second half play was largely of a forward nature and territorially the School were the better side. The Shawnigan outsides did not improve as the game progressed and resorted to kicking as a means of attack. In this they were not successful, Bird, the School full back, finding many kicks directed straight to him. The School outsides were not impressive either: they were never really together and Ogle carried them both in attack and defence. The School pack really called the tune. Splendidly led by Lund they were superior in the line-outs and the loose and fully as good in the tight. The School went further ahead when, from a tight scrum just inside the Shawnigan twenty-five, Allen, from the base of the scrum, found Ogle with a good pass, and the School Vice-Captain went straight through on his own to score a fine try which Lund failed to goal. There was no further scoring and the School won a very even game 6-0. The back row forwards were most effective, Andrews had a good match and Lund was magnificent. Ogle was outstanding in all departments.

SCHOOL v. VICTORIA HIGH SCHOOL

This game, played at Victoria High School under appalling weather and ground conditions, was won by the School by a penalty goal and two tries (9 pts.) to nil.

The opening stages were fairly even, but the High School outsiders never looked capable of handling a very difficult ball, and what little three-quarter work there was was contributed by the School. The School opened their account with a penalty goal, Lund being successful with a longish shot, a fine kick under the prevailing conditions. A little later the best move of the day behind the scrum resulted in Wittke's going over after taking the final pass from Wenman. Both Allen and Ogle had a hand in the try, which Ogle failed to improve.

At half time Ogle, who had been injured, left the field and took no further part in the game, but the forwards were now in full command and play was almost entirely confined to the High School half. Lund, Bedard and Johnston caught the eye in the School pack, but one and all played spirited football, the lighter back-row forwards being very prominent when the ball went loose. A push-over try from a scrum near the High School line was the only score of the second half. Lund was given credit for the try but failed to convert and the School had won 9-0.

SCHOOL v. ROYAL ROADS 1st XV

Playing at Royal Roads the School faded away in the last fifteen minutes and lost by four tries (12 pts.) to a penalty goal (3 pts.).

The School had a definite territorial advantage throughout the first half and led at the breather, Lund kicking a good penalty goal. The forwards showed to advantage but the backs were not happy, neither Allen nor Wenman looking capable of filling the injured Ogle's position at outside half.

After the restart Royal Roads had much more of the game and in the closing stages all of it. The School forwards for the only time this season were beaten by quicker, stronger and fiercer men, and the result was four unconverted tries late in the game. Lund, Johnston, Bedard and Stidham had a good match.

SCHOOL v. OAK BAY HIGH SCHOOL

The School were successful at Carnarvon Park, winning by two goals and four tries (22 pts.) to nil.

Throughout the first half, although the School had a decided territorial advantage, the High School had their chances and there was not much in it. The School were superior to their opponents, but behind the scrum the School, without Ogle, were outplayed by bigger and faster men. Bird, at full back, saved the day on two occasions with splendid tackles and the School line was not crossed. At the other end Andrews opened the scoring when he threw himself over from a scramble near the line. Lund added the extra points and the School led 5-0.

From a penalty early in the second half the School went further ahead when Lund tapped the ball to Bedard, who forced himself over. Lund improved this try but was not so successful with the next, which was also credited to Bedard when the scrum pushed over. Oak Bay were now weakening and Lund scored from a scramble on the line, but failed to convert. Then came the best try of the day. From a fast heel from the loose the ball went quickly from Allen to Wittke and then to Wenman, and Connorton, taking the final pass, used his speed to the full to outpace the opposition and score. Lund failed to convert. In the closing minutes Allen dodged through a rather demoralized defence to score a try which he failed to improve from an easy position.

In winning 22-0 the School had improved as the game progressed. The forwards won their battle early in the second half. Lund, Bedard and Johnston were outstanding. Behind the scrum the School missed Ogle sorely, but Wittke gave a reasonable display, Wenman and Bird did some useful things and Connorton, displaying more aggression, showed how dangerous he can be when given the ball early. This was Lund, the School Captain's, fiftieth match for the First Fifteen.

SCHOOL v. OAK BAY HIGH SCHOOL

The return with Oak Bay High School was played at home and won by a goal and four tries (17 pts.) to nil.

Without Ogle and Johnston the School were never really together but proved the better side. Both Wenman and Wittke were tried at outside half, but Wenman was not nippy enough and Wittke not experienced enough to get things moving. The School opened their account early. Allen, Wenman and Wittke all handling before Connorton slipped through to score a try which Lund improved. Oak Bay then threatened briefly, but Bird's tackle saved the School and the forwards took up the attack again. After a spell of pressure, during which at least two tries were lost because passes were delayed, Wenman put the School further ahead when he gathered a loose ball and scored after a short run. Lund failed to convert. Bedard scored the next try when he ran thirty yards down the touch line, handing off several opponents en route, and scored far out. Lund failed with the kick and the School led 11-0 at half time.

After half time there appeared to be a general unwillingness to pass, but eventually the School went further ahead when Allen slipped out the ball to Radford on the blind side and then, supporting his wing well, took a return pass almost on the line to score. Lund failed to goal. The final try was scored by Beban, who forced his way through the opposition from a loose scrum on the line. Lund, who had a poor day with his kicking, failed to goal, and the School had won 17-0.

Undoubtedly the better side, the School appeared to be complacent and individually selfish. In the pack Lund was, as usual, excellent.

Connorton continued to improve both in attack and defence and Allen was active and aggressive, but held on for the extra stride far too often.

SCHOOL v. ST. GEORGE'S SCHOOL

The return match with St. George's saw the School brilliantly successful by a goal, a penalty goal and three tries (17 pts.) to a try (3 pts.).

The School started confidently and, getting more of the ball, looked to be better forward and fully as strong behind. They opened the scoring in the first ten minutes when very intelligent play by Ogle and Wenman, both in the movement for the second time, saw Wenman position himself to take a perfect pass from Ogle and score the prettiest try of the year. Lund failed to convert. A little later the forwards made much ground with the ball at their feet and Allen, following them closely, was quick to pounce on a loose ball and score a try which Lund goaled. This was a just reward for Allen who shortly before had crossed but had been held up. Maintaining pressure the School went further ahead when Ogle, very closely marked, suddenly chose the blind side and made ground down the touch line. He then kicked ahead and Forrester in close support obtained a richly-deserved try. Lund failed to goal and the School led 11-0. The backs, with the exception of Radford, who was lacking in anticipation, had an excellent first half. Ogle was particularly prominent and played a large part in two of the three tries scored.

After the restart the School, while not dominating the game to quite the same extent, nevertheless enjoyed a definite advantage. The backs never had the chances afforded them in the first half, Ogle being more closely harried than ever and unable to set things in motion. They increased their lead, however, when Lund was successful with a penalty. St. George's then had their turn, a break through the centre and a well-judged pass giving them an unconverted try at the flag. Bird, the School full back, came under some pressure at this stage and stood up well, his kicking and handling being adequate. The final try was scored by Beban when he gathered a loose ball five yards from the line and forced himself over. Lund failed to goal and the School won 17-3.

The forwards, inspired by the leadership of Lund, gave a fine display. One and all played sterling games. The light back row, with Forrester very prominent, harried the opposition and were always well up when the ball went loose. The heavier five, with Lund, Bedard and Johnston always in the van, controlled play in the line-out and played storming football throughout.

SCHOOL v. SHAWNIGAN LAKE SCHOOL

The return with Shawnigan Lake School was played at home and won by a goal and a try (8 pts.) to a goal (5 pts.).

Playing against a stiff wind the School showed up well at the start.

The forwards outplayed the opposing pack and looked to be better in all phases. Play was confined largely to the Shawnigan half but despite this the School forwards could not force a try. When the ball was in possession of the Shawnigan outsiders they appeared to have the legs of the School. Their right wing was particularly dangerous and on one occasion a good tackle by Bird saved an awkward situation. Behind the scrum for the School Ogle was, as usual, very prominent, obtaining surprising distance with his kicking against the wind. Connorton also had a good first half.

After their good showing against the wind the School were expected to control the game in the second half. They did enjoy a wide territorial advantage and play was for the most part in the Shawnigan half, but the opposing forwards resisted with determination and the School had to wait some time for their first success. When Allen had been held up after he had crossed and the forwards had taken the ball over without a try being awarded, the School finally opened the scoring when the scrum pushed over from five yards. This time there was no mistake and Bedard, who was on the bottom of the pile, was given credit for the try, which Ogle goaled from dead in front. They continued to press and some intelligent play by Wenman and Ogle took the School back to the Shawnigan line where some very strenuous play took place. Finally the School went further ahead when Allen made a nice opening on the blind side for Wittke, who flew at the line to score the most important try of the season. Lund failed to convert. Shawnigan then played up extremely well and were somewhat unfortunate when a penalty awarded them was missed. Had play been allowed to continue a try could easily have resulted. Shortly before the end, however, they opened their account when a nicely-judged kick and some attractive passing and running brought them a well-deserved try which was goaled. There was no further scoring and the School, easily on top territorially, won 8-5.

The School pack was in good form and had they not met very stiff resistance from the opposing forwards Shawnigan could well have been over-run. The School outsiders had much of the ball but the marking was exceptionally close and Ogle found it easier to kick his forwards to the Shawnigan line than to try to run through or around three-quarters faster and heavier than his own. A keenly-contested game, but not a great one.

SCHOOL v. QUALICUM COLLEGE

Playing at Qualicum for the first time the School were successful by three goals and three tries (24 pts.) to a penalty goal and a try (6 pts.).

The School started slowly and for some time play was even and very ragged, neither side showing anything of a constructive nature. Qualicum actually had the better chances and could easily have gone ahead in the first ten minutes. Gradually the School settled down and opened the scoring with the best try of the game. From midfield Allen set the backs in motion and after all had handled Phillips finished the movement with a fine burst to score at the flag. Lund failed to convert. A little later from a line-out on the Qualicum line Stidham threw himself over to score a try which Ogle turned into a goal. Connorton completed the scoring in the first half when he profited by some constructive work by Ogle to score a try which Lund failed to improve.

Forrester opened the scoring in the second half with a try from the loose, which Ogle failed to improve. Qualicum opened their account with a penalty goal and then added to their total with an excellent effort — a long kick through the defence to an alert wing resulted in a try, which was not converted, at the flag. A little later Connorton scored his second try, but Lund, who had an off day, failed to convert. Shortly before no-side Ogle went through on his own to score a try which he himself improved, and the School had won 24-6. The game was disappointing, ragged for the most part with little good Rugby.

SCHOOL v. H.M.C.S. VENTURE

The School won against H.M.C.S. Venture at home by a penalty goal and a try (6 pts.) to a penalty goal (3 pts.).

It was soon apparent that the packs were very evenly matched in the tight and the line-out. The School were superior in the loose, however, and Venture were quickly on the defensive. The School outsiders, without Connorton, were neither fast enough nor clever enough to pierce a very keen defence, and it was left to Lund to open the scoring with a penalty thirty-five yards out and dead in front. Continuing to have the better of it the School went further ahead when Ogle, going on the blind side, made a clever opening for Radford, who forced himself over at the flag. Lund failed to goal and the School led 6-0 at half time.

Shortly after the resumption Johnston was hurt and took no further part in the game. Playing one short the School gave a good account of themselves but territorially the game swung in Venture's favour. The School had several close calls but no try resulted, though a penalty goal was conceded late in the game. The match, though even and very keenly fought, was not a good one and at times was little better than a vigorous scramble. Behind the scrum Ogle was, as usual, outstanding. Allen had quite a good match and Wenman did some useful things, but as a group they never looked dangerous. The forwards faced up to heavy opposition well, and Forrester was very prominent in the loose.

SCHOOL v. THE OLD BOYS

This very even game was a fitting close to a good season. The School were successful by a goal and two tries (11 pts.) to a goal and a penalty goal (8 pts.).

The match was not so good as that between the two sides earlier in the season, but the Old Boys' forwards played surprisingly well, and it was some time before Allen, the School scrum half, opened the scoring with a try which Lund goaled. The School backs were not together and unable to press home their advantage.

Soon after the breather the School went further ahead when Wittke scored a try in the corner. Andrews had a hand in this try, which Lund failed to goal. Connorton was very prominent at this stage and was the only School outside with any thrust. The Old Boys, well served by George Morgan and Ken Bridge forward, and by Bob Shipley and Ray Calton behind the scrum, opened their account when Shipley was successful with a penalty. Heartened, they came again and drew level when Shipley scored, following a forward rush in the School twenty-five. He converted his own try. A draw was not to be, however, and Lund settled the issue with an unconverted try late in the game and the School had won 11-8.

FIRST FIFTEEN CHARACTERS

LUND (Captain) — An outstanding front-rank forward. He played all out from start to finish, neither asked quarter nor gave it and loved the game. By assiduous practice and keen determination to succeed he made himself the team's best place-kicker. As a Captain he inspired his team on and off the field, asking, expecting and receiving much of them.

OGLE (Vice-Captain) — Enjoyed a fine season at outside half and held the side together behind the scrum. His tackling was keen and sure and his kicking lengthy and accurate. In attack he was a trifle slow off the mark but his handling was splendid and his passing timely, and the best movements were always of his initiation. Keen to a degree and full of courage he played the game in a splendid spirit.

BEDARD — With an increase in experience and confidence he fulfilled the promise shown last year. Splendid in the line-out, where his weight, height and excellent hands were well used. An honest worker in the loose and very dangerous near the line. One of the best of a good pack.

JOHNSTON — Another invaluable forward. Outstanding in the line-out, an honest pusher in the second row and a terrific worker in the loose. He had a splendid season.

ANDREWS — Steady rather than spectacular. Rather heavy-footed in the loose, but very useful in the tight, where he filled the position of hooker quite well. Dangerous close to the line.

HUDSON — A very useful break forward. Always well up in the loose and frequently on hand when wanted at the vital time. His tackling was not decisive enough.

STIDHAM — A back row forward who worked extremely hard in the loose and was always in the thick of things. He was also a very competent scrum half.

FORRESTER — A much-improved break forward. His tackling lacked decision but he was a good harrier of the defence, and supported his own outsiders well in attack.

BEBAN — Made a promising start as a front-row forward and did quite well in the tight. Rather ponderous in the loose, but should be very useful next year if he can keep his weight down and his condition up.

ALLEN (Scrum Half) — An experienced player, he started slowly but improved as the season progressed, and eventually fulfilled the promise of last year. Dangerous near the line and scored some typical scrum-half tries. Nippy and alert, and his service was good and his defence adequate.

CONNORTON (Centre) — Gradually acquired the necessary confidence and at the end of the season was the most improved player behind the scrum, both in attack and defence. Combined quite well and possessed the pace to finish.

WENMAN (Centre) — In defence he was usually cool under pressure though his tackling was hesitant at times. In attack his main lack was pace, but he combined well, his handling and passing were good and his kicking, both ahead and to touch, was well judged.

PHILLIPS (Wing Three-quarter) — Made a promising start on the wing, where he showed pace and a willingness to use it. With a little more weight and an improved defence he should be a more than useful player.

WITTKE (Wing Three-quarter) — A promising wing who requires only a little more experience and an improved defence. Keen to a degree, and very determined in attack, he was a most useful member of the side. A player with a future.

BIRD (Full Back) — His kicking lacked length and he was heavy of foot, which led to slowness in gathering and gave him little chance against quicker men with room to move. Very courageous, and his tackling was good and his hands fairly safe. W. R. G. W.

COLTS RUGBY

The Colts enjoyed a successful season, winning three of their four school matches. The forwards, with the ubiquitous Windrem prominent, played with great enthusiasm and, by the end of the season, with some skill. They were able to give their backs a plentiful supply of the ball. Here the long, straight passing of Huston was invaluable, giving Goward and his three-quarters ample space in which to move.

M. A. N.

JUNIOR RUGBY

Two teams were fielded from the House this year. The '105 lbs.' played some good Rugby, but unfortunately were defeated by Shawnigan Lake and St. George's.

The full side was: Dobell I (Captain), Frost, Crum, Murdoch II, Radford II, Hawkesworth II, Custance, Flashman, Hindson I, Hindson II, Wilde, Bapty I, Finch, Johnson II and Marsden.

The '90 lbs.' team was something very new and has filled a long-standing gap. The team played with grim determination and were always a delight to watch. The team won fifty per cent of its games.

The full side was: Hindson II (Captain), Meakes I, Gurney, Roberts, Cree II, Bapty II, Berard, Wenman II, Wilde, Walton, Timmis II, Norcross, Rostoker I, Code II and Johnson II. W. N. H.

JUNIOR SOCCER

As Soccer is one of the less popular games where the Senior School is concerned, it is very gratifying to find it played with so much enthusiasm by many of the Junior boys. Perhaps this is because it requires so little effort to start a game, a nucleus of two 'kicking a ball about' being sufficient. However, Soccer is essentially a team game, and due to the fact that the majority of the more athletic boys was able to spare but little time from Rugger training we were unfortunately unable to field a team strong enough to offer much opposition to the smoother team-work of our opponents from Glenlyon. The two occasions when we did meet produced quite exciting games, hard-fought and, I am sure, enjoyed by all concerned, but unfortunately lost.

The Inter-House Competition proved much more even. Since it requires eleven boys to form a team practically everyone was included, no consideration being made for differences in age, since the result of the game depends upon speed, nimbleness, team-work and ball-control, not weight, size and strength. Though hampered by bad weather (two games were played while snow was on the ground, and many more in thick mud), all matches were completed. Each team played six matches, and the final results were interesting — a four-way tie between Cook, Fraser, Mackenzie and Thompson. J. A. M.

CRICKET 1ST XI

B. Goward, J. Lucie-Smith, M. Kennaugh, D. Beban, C. Fibiger, R. Grubb,

CRICKET

This year it was found possible to arrange seven fixtures, but this necessitated a very early start (April 18th.), and an unusual arrangement in the home game with Shawnigan Lake School whereby there was a break for supper instead of for tea. Four matches were won, two lost and one drawn.

Ogle, the Captain, was the outstanding cricketer and won the bat presented by University School Incogs for the best all-rounder in the School. Ogle's 18 wickets cost him 111 runs (average 6.2) while with the bat he made 138 runs (average 34.5). The leading bowler was Shaffer, whose 28 wickets for 136 runs gave him an average of 4.9; he had a batting average of 10.7. Beban was also a success with the bat, averaging 13. He was given his colours.

Wenman I assisted Ogle as Vice-Captain and the full side was as follows:— I. C. G. Ogle, J. R. G. Wenman, A. J. Shaffer, D. W. Beban, F. G. Allen, W. G. Lund, C. H. Fibiger, R. E. Grubb, J. E. Lucie-Smith, B. R. Goward and M. J. Kennaugh.

The Clayton Cup was competed for by teams captained by Ogle, Wenman, Shaffer and Beban. Two full rounds were played, Ogle's XI finally emerging victorious. This competition, as always, stimulated considerable enthusiasm, but it did not prove proper practice and the lack of nets was sorely felt.

The House Match resulted in an easy win for Founders House.

FIRST ELEVEN MATCHES

SCHOOL v. VICTORIA JUNIORS

The season opened at home on April 18th., the Victoria Juniors proving no match for the School XI, who won by eight wickets. The visitors could only manage 28 runs and these were obtained for the loss of the School openers.

SCHOOL v. AN ALBION XI

Against an Albion XI the School batted creditably. Ogle and Wenman both failed, but several others, particularly Grubb, who went in late, showed promise. Ogle (5 for 12) and Shaffer (4 for 20) dismissed the Albions for 42 and the School won by 20 runs. Lund showed improved form behind the stumps.

Batting first at Shawnigan Lake the School declared at 105 for three wickets. Ogle was the chief contributor, his 54 containing a six and six 4's. The School batted first at Brockton Point, Goward and Shaffer giving them an excellent start. Ogle and Wenman both failed, and it was left to Beban to partner Shaffer and improve the situation. Fibiger added a few quick runs at the end and Ogle declared at 99 for nine. After the fall of their third wicket St. George's never looked like making the runs and they were out for 56, Shaffer taking four for 13 and having a fine match with bat and ball. Ogle and Beban held good catches. The match was won by 43 runs.

SCHOOL v. SHAWNIGAN LAKE SCHOOL

The home game against Shawnigan Lake was played on a Wednesday, commencing after School and finishing after supper. The School won a disappointing match on the first innings by 76 runs. Shawnigan batted miserably and were out for 11, Shaffer taking eight for five. Ogle made his second fifty of the season and declared at 87 for seven. Shawnigan batted again and fared somewhat better but the game was decided on the first innings.

FIRST ELEVEN CHARACTERS

OGLE (Captain) — An excellent all-round cricketer. With the bat his defence is good but he is essentially an attacker and is very severe on anything loose. Drives powerfully, especially on the on side, but lofts the ball unduly. With the ball he is steady, dependable and somewhat faster than formerly. Brilliant in the field in any position.

WENMAN (Vice-Captain) — Had an extremely poor season with the bat. His defence is reasonably good and he hits the ball hard on the leg side, but he feels for the ball playing forward and fails to reach the pitch with decision. Enjoyed some success as a change bowler and was always keen and safe in the field.

SHAFFER — An improved opening batsman who watches the ball carefully and presents a very straight bat in defence. His scoring strokes are mainly on the leg side at present. Maintained his excellent form with the ball, keeping a steady length and turning his slower ball from leg appreciably. In the field his hands have improved but he is slow on the ground. Keen and enthusiastic to a degree.

BEBAN — His defence, while still not sound, has improved and he played some useful innings, hitting anything loose hard. Adequate in the field.

ALLEN — Too slow to move his feet and never developed with the bat. Good in the field.

GOWARD — Quite promising all round. Rather impetuous with the bat but will make runs when he develops in stature. Useful with the ball and in the field.

LUND — Came on considerably this year and earned his place as a wicket-keeper. Rather large for the task and inexperienced but his courage and keenness stood him in good stead. Lacked a defence with the bat and his methods were somewhat agricultural.

LUCIE-SMITH — Rather stiff and cramped in style but has a fair defence and will yet make runs. Very promising as a bowler and there are wickets for him when he is able to maintain a length. Slow in the field. Always most keen and willing.

FIBIGER — A promising bowler with an awkward delivery but with fair pace and accuracy. Rather cramped in style with the bat. Good in the field and extremely keen.

GRUBB — A promising batsman with a fair range of strokes which he plays with more grace than punch. Very willing in the field but most uncertain. Has a good knowledge of the game and is very keen.

KENNAUGH — Rather awkward in style but has the elements of defence and is not without promise with the bat. Lazy in the field.

W. R. G. W.

COLTS CRICKET

We have had a most disappointing season, losing every one of our six matches. However, there has been considerable enthusiasm for the game, and this augurs well for forthcoming years. Grubb II has been a watchful opening bat, and Hawkesworth II has shown distinct promise. The bowling and fielding have been alike very weak indeed, but one must pay tribute to Webb I, who bowled the occasional good ball.

M. A. N.

JUNIOR CRICKET

This year Harvey House was able to field two teams, a Grade VI XI, very ably led by Berard, and a Grade VIII XI.

The enthusiasm shown by the Grade VI Team was tremendous, every spare minute being converted into useful practice time. Consequently it was not surprising that they won the majority of the matches played.

The first match of the season, against Shawnigan, was originally conceded a draw, but on further examination of the score book it was found to be a win for the School by two runs. The outstanding batsman of the game was Wenman II, who scored twelve of the team's twenty runs.

Against Glenlyon the score was a little more decisive, the School making 64 against 15 made by Glenlyon. Berard and Bapty II both scored over ten runs in this match.

A further three matches were played against St. Michael's. These resulted in a win for each team and one drawn game.

The Grade VIII Team did not fare so well owing to the lack of a good Captain. Matches were played against Shawnigan and St. Michael's, but all were lost, owing to poor batting. This may have been due to a lack of nets in which to practise.

Special thanks are due to Mr. Wilson, who spent practically every evening behind the stumps coaching the team and demonstrating the correct use of the bat.

J. A. M.

GRASS HOCKEY

There was little time, this year, for Hockey before Rugby Football demanded our full attention. The game was kept alive, however, both in the Upper School and in Harvey House. Two matches were played by the 1st XI, one against a Vancouver side and one against a team composed of members of the Staff and other Victoria enthusiasts. Both were lost, but there were promising boys in the side, particularly Bird and Ogle, and a general keenness and enthusiasm for the game itself.

W. R. G. W.

BASKETBALL

University School Basketball this year would, perhaps, be better unmentioned. Our two teams had but one match each, both against Shawnigan Lake School. The Senior Team, being short of players, took three prominent members of the 'under 16's', and were soundly trounced. Despite the loss of these three players the second team, though losers, gave Shawnigan a very close battle.

There was no lack of skill and enthusiasm among the younger players, and they give promise of becoming a senior team comparable to those of the other schools of Victoria.

TENNIS

Once again the School was without courts of its own; nevertheless a limited number of entries was accepted for the School Championship, the matches being played on the public courts at Carnarvon Park.

In the final, which produced mediocre tennis, R. C. Fargher dehis brother, T. B. Fargher, to win the Championship and the Barnacle Cup

SWIMMING

The Annual Swimming Championships were again held on the last night of Term (June 11th.). Training and heats had been at a minimum owing to the many activities held at the end of the Term. However, the heats were run off, and the finalists appeared before most of the Senior School.

The place of distinction in the Sports went to Todd, who again won the Intermediate Championship easily. The results otherwise can only be termed mediocre.

Brentwood again won the House Championship, even though bowing to a 7-2 defeat in the Water Polo.

Special thanks are once more due to the Officials.

WATER POLO

After a number of practices in the 'Tank' and later in Naden pool the team was prepared for the Lower Island Tournament, held at H.M.C.S. Naden on February 26th.

We played our first match against Royal Roads Tri-Services College. This proved to be an exciting game, in which we were trailing 4-1 at half time. By the second half the School players had realized that fast, offensive play was the answer, and so we went ahead to win the game 5-4.

Our next game in the Tournament was against the eventual winners, Victoria College, to whom we lost 4-5, after a close, hard game.

Outstanding players for the School were Cressman, Wittke and Mooney.

LIFE SAVING

Classes leading towards the Royal Life Saving Society's Bronze Medallion were begun in the Easter Term. By the end of the year 13 boys were proficient in the water and land drills, but not up to standard in the theoretical side of the course. For that reason it was decided not to hold the final tests until next year. J. S. G.

GYMNASTICS

On June 9th., after a lapse of eight year, a Gym VIII Competition was held at the School. Thirteen boys had utilized their spare time in training, and had reached a satisfactory standard of gymnastics.

The competition was divided into two sections. The compulsory work consisted of mat work, box work and some set exercises on the high bar. The second section was optional, each boy choosing the apparatus on which he wished to do advanced work. Apparatus used included the Box, Mats, High Bar, Parallel Bars, Flying Rings, Inclined Ladder and Spring Board (Free Flight).

Special mention must be made of Forrester I, whose compulsory work and exercises on the Parallel Bars were of a high calibre, and of Clark III, who mastered the intricacies of the High Bar.

I should like to thank Mr. Hyde-Lay for his excellent judging and all those boys who spent many hours practising in the Gym.

Colours were awarded to Forrester I and Clark III.

THE CORPS

Corps Reports seem to be depressingly similar, from year to year. We will content you, therefore, with saying merely that the Company has flourished exceedingly and continued to raise its standards, that our Inspection Day rating (under the auspices of Brigadier Bishop) was the highest within living memory and that an immaculate performance was given on 'Sunset Ceremony.' (Members of the Corps also appeared, to their advantage, at sundry Canadian Scottish functions.)

Lund I, as Captain, and ultimately Major, amply fulfilled his promise, and Beban, as C.S.M., grew visibly in physical and disciplinary stature throughout the season.

Recognition is due to all responsible for our repeated successes—for instance, to Mr. Storr, toiling unobtrusively and tirelessly in the basement, and instilling, in outside and inside armouries, a storreman-ship which has frequently baffled the younger sweats of 'Area'; to Mr. Peet (see under 'Shooting'), whose fine statistical frenzy has ensured the retention of more than one pot on our display-shelves; to Messrs. Birley and Wilson, who have toughened us up with a lively Assault Course; to the Parents Auxiliary, for the gift of garters, and to the Matrons, who have more than once performed the impossible at less than last-minute notice.

We have now been facing the Fall with a fresh issue of kilts, and look forward to an even healthier future.

SHOOTING

The standard of shooting has once again afforded a pleasing contrast to the architectural features of the range. All boys in the Cadet Force were able to shoot on the .22 Recreational Target during the Winter terms. An average of 65 for the whole Corps was obtained in the Army Classification, which consists of Application, Grouping and Snap. There were 41 new badges awarded for the standards attained on the Recreational Target in at least ten targets.

The Harvey Memorial Rifle for the best shot of the year went to F. G. Allen with an average of 94.8.

The Don Braidwood Cup for the best Intermediate shot was won by I. C. G. Ogle with an average of 91.1.

The Junior Cup went to J. W. Riebe — average 92.2.

The Harvey Challenge Cup for the best shot in the D.C.R.A. Competition was won by J. R. Storr with 288 out of 300.

The Rich Cup for the best shot at Heal's Range went to F. G. Allen (63.7).

On re-examination of the results the School was placed third in The Adam Cup (competed for by Cadet Corps on Vancouver Island). The I.O.D.E. Cup is being discontinued, so this, together with The Woodward Cup, will be retained by the School. In the D.C.R.A. Competition, in which 505 teams competed, the 'A' Team was placed 20th. in all Canada with an average of 94.9; the 'B' Team was 64th. (90.7), both Teams being in the First Division. The Inter-Schools Competition was also fired and the first Team had an average of 94.2.

The Shooting Eight was as follows:—

- Sgt. F. G. Allen (Avge. 92.5)
- Maj. W. G. Lund (Avge. 95.5)
- Sgt. G. M. Forrester (Avge. 93.5)
- Drum Maj. J. R. Storr (Avge. 94.83)
- Cdt. P. D. Radford (Avge. 95.17)
- Lt. I. C. G. Ogle (Avge. 92.17)
- Cpl. J. W. Riebe (Avge. 95.17)
- C.S.M. D. W. Beban (Avge. 93.73)

Shooting Colours were awarded to Forrester I and Storr: they were already held by Lund I and Allen.

The following shooting badges were gained:—

- Distinguished (ten 97's)
- Lund I
- Forrester I
- Allen

Expert (ten 95's)	Marksman (ten 90's)	First Class (ten 80's)

A new departure this year were the fortnightly visits for groups of 20 to Heal's Range to shoot with .303 rifles. About 90 boys have had the opportunity to go, which has been taken with enthusiasm. Some very good scores were recorded considering that the rifles were in frequent use for "square-bashing," which is not conducive to accurate sighting. The three most memorable occasions were (1) the second outing, when firing was, as it were, under water, and the scores are still under the mud; (2) the day when ten members of the Bren Gun Group came too, and what Mr. Wilson said about the extra time that it took; (3) the day in the Summer Term when Allen scored 74 out of 80, his only "misses" being three inners in the ten round Application and three inners in the ten Rapid (75 seconds). This was on the 200 yds. range.

SIGNALLING

Once again a very large group assembled for the first class of the year, but as usual it rapidly dwindled to a stalwart few, since many dropped out after the first two weeks, the possible reward of $40.00 not being enough for them to attend two classes a week! The rest stuck it out, however, and by Inspection Day had reached a fair degree of proficiency. Our display on that occasion went off without a hitch.

By the day of the Army Tests all felt sure of completing their '6 w.p.m.', and several were confidently expecting their '18 w.p.m.'. But (alas and alack!) the personnel who came to conduct the exam. were "new ones" bristling with Army Efficiency, and they gave us tests of a much higher standard than in any previous year.

The result was that the list of successful candidates was not so big as usual. Everyone was greatly disappointed and justly felt that they deserved more success than they had, at least in comparison with classes of other years. Nevertheless, hearty congratulations are in order for the following, who did pass their tests, and especially to Keble, who completed his '12 w.p.m.' in one year:—

6 w.p.m.	12 w.p.m.
Cooper	Cooper
Grubb I	Grubb I
Keble I	Keble I
Mayhew
Pearse
Petter

I would like to express my most sincere thanks to Cpl. White and Cdt. Williamson for their invaluable help during the year and on Inspection Day, and for their unrewarding efforts in the task of making the obsolete equipment "go."

Good luck to all those trying again next year!

J. R. G. Wenman, Sergeant

RADIO COMMUNICATIONS

At the beginning of the year it was realized that our activities in the field of radio communication would be hampered by the lack of serviceable equipment and necessary batteries. Our inventory listed two '19' transmitter-receiver sets, a set of H.D. 5 field phones, one portable switch-board and, lastly, two '26' sets, which arrived in February.

On Inspection Day we were again affiliated with the First Aid Display, which had its usual success. We were of further use in the Quadrangular Track Meet, when our equipment was employed for transmitting results to the main clerk.

Our thanks go to Mr. Storr for his efforts in acquiring additional equipment, and I wish personally to thank those ten cadets whose efforts made possible what success we had.

Lorne P. Hudson, Sergeant

FIRST AID

There was a record enrolment of fifty Cadets in the First Aid class this year. Again, by hook or by crook, a hundred-per-cent result was attained in the final exam.

The highlight of the First Aid year was our Inspection Day "Spectacular." It was carried out, as usual, in the best Hollywood style. A number of the current enemy again fell dead in practised form, and smoke once more efficiently choked the spectators.

I would like to wish Rigos II, who will be carrying on as First Aid Instructor, every success for the coming year.

Wilfred G. Lund, Major

THE BAND

Approximately this time last year I sat down to write a report on what I considered to be the best Band that I had known in University School — this year I find myself writing an exactly similar report.

Our continued success had been due largely to the fact that nearly all last year's Bandmen came back, so that of our total of 26 only nine were recruits. These nine quickly fell into place, and we were in operation at a much earlier time than in previous years. We were able to add a new drum march which was greatly enjoyed both by the Band and (most unusual) by the Corps generally. Moreover we were never seriously troubled by football injuries; but my sympathies went out to Mein, who broke an ankle only a couple of weeks before Inspection Day.

Inspection Day itself was a great success, and, with the Corps, the Band was congratulated on its performance. The Sunset Ceremony also proved successful in every detail. However, our heaviest ordeal of the year was experienced on the march back from General Vokes' Inspection. This was due to a slight lack of cohesion between our Band and a Band from another unit in our section, and we had to play almost continuously all the way from Beacon Hill Park to the Bay St. Armouries. We were a very tired formation by the end of the day.

There is little left but to say "Goodbye" to all those in this year's Band and to wish the Best of Luck to next year's Band and Bandmaster. And whatever they do, let them (to quote Mr. Genge) "Keep up a good, crisp pace, for _____'s sake," and (to quote myself) "Make lots of noise."

Fred G. Allen, Bandmaster

BANFF AND VERNON

Contingents from 'No. 170' attended both Banff and Vernon Cadet Camps this year.

Activities at Banff included drill, advanced arms training and a week's out-door bivouac, and Cadets had ample opportunities for such diversions as trail-riding and visiting National Park, Hot Springs, Lake Louise, Emerald Lake etc. The School contingent distinguished itself, Lund I and Lund II gaining first and Second place, respectively, in the competition for Company Commander.

Ten University School Cadets paraded at Vernon. All these took an extensive and complicated Cadet-Leader course, Rayner being awarded the Winner's Trophy. Six University Cadets gained places in the Guard of Honour.

Our results from this invaluable training undoubtedly bode well for 'No. 170's Cadet Staffs of the future.

Peter J. Lund, Sergeant

THE SCOUTS

Much was accomplished this year where Scouting was concerned. Soon after the term commenced the whole Troop spent a weekend at Lake Durrançe. As the first term passed, so more new members were invested. Throughout the term the four P.L.'s met regularly and in the main the Troop was controlled by the Court of Honour. Just prior to the Christmas holidays it was decided to clean and paint the Troop H.Q. Each member contributed to the paint fund and during the vacation four of the Scouts spent two days painting and decorating. With the assistance of his Father, P. L. Smalley constructed two patrol dens.

During the Easter Vacation ten boys went to Camp Barnard for four days. The weather was variable. The first night water left in pails was found solid in the morning. For the remainder of the camp this was continually used as an excuse for not washing! For the first time the Troop tackled a Monkey Bridge. Rain interfered with the construction, however, but we managed to bridge de Emmanuel Creek. Mr. Marshall valiantly crossed the Bridge, his first attempt ending in a near disaster.

Throughout the year much progress was made on Badges and it was pleasing to see six Scouts earn their Second Class Badges. Several Proficiency Badges were also awarded.

During the Summer Term the Troop attempted to build a "high line." This proved successful. The line ran some 150 feet and provided a pleasant ride. Built by the Scouts this proved a great attraction and for four days was used by ALL members of the School!

The Owl Patrol went to Comox one week-end to compete in that District's Camporee. The Patrol did very well, gaining an 'A' rating. The Scouts tried exceedingly hard and achieved a very high standard.

Just before the term ended the Parents' Auxiliary stated their desire to help the Troop. Two tents and a fly sheet have been ordered by them. The Troop wishes warmly to thank the Parents and assure them that the camping equipment will see much use.

W. N. H., Scoutmaster

THE CUBS

On the whole the Pack has had a very enjoyable year. On a few occasions we went into the Mt. Tolmie woods and played games, and we went to camp twice at Cordova Bay.

Since some of the Pack had not been awarded their first stars most of the meetings were devoted to passing tests. While those concerned were passing their tests, others were passing tests for their second stars. Most of the boys have their second stars now. At the last cub meeting of the year the following badges were awarded: Swimmer's Badge: P.

Forrester, P. Code, J. Wenman, H. Chaworth-Musters, E. Doherty, M. Graham, T. Roberts and A. Kelly. Gardener's Badge: J. Dafoe and P. Hardy. Athlete's Badge: B. Nixon, N. Norcross, S. Timmis, H. Howe, J. Wenman, R. Chaworth-Musters, J. Dafoe, J. St. E. Thorp. A. Kelly, C. Tyrrell and P. Forrester.

To get the Swimmer's Badge the boys had to do a length on their backs, tread water for two minutes, do a duck dive and do two lengths free style. For the Athlete's Badge they had to jump 2' 8" high, broad jump six feet, climb a rope, do a cart-wheel and run 60 yds. in a set time. For the Gardener's Badge they had to keep a garden for three months.

The Pack had a garden for each six as well as gardens for boys who wanted to pass their Gardener's Badge. There were two gardeners to look after the gardens.

The Sixers at the end of the year were J. Wenman, A. Kelly and P. Hardy. Peter Hardy, Sixer

FOUNDERS HOUSE

Once again Founders House has lined up to its traditional high standard. Many thanks to Mr. Wenman and Mr. Nightingale for devoting their time and efforts to the good of the House. Through Mr. Nightingale's generosity many entertaining evenings were spent around his Hi Fi Set, and I am sure that the roll at early morning Church was greatly increased when the boys found that they did not have to walk.

In the Inter-House Sports Competitions Founders has distinguished itself by winning the Senior Rugby, both Senior and Junior Cricket, the Cross Country and, last but not least, a furious game of Water Polo. Although we did not win the Sports Day Track Meeting we are indebted to such outstanding athletes as Ogle, Milner and Cressman for their bringing all the Sports Championships to Founders House.

To sum up — we have had a commendable year, with a tremendous display of House spirit, and the promise shown indicates that next year will be even better. Dale S. Simpson.

BRENTWOOD HOUSE

Once more Brentwood enjoyed a very successful year. A concentrated effort by the whole House succeeded in bringing home the inter-House Sports Trophy. Brentwood also won the Swimming Sports and the Basketball by fair margins. The inter-House Rugby, which always produces fierce and sporting struggles, ended with a win for the House in the junior game but a loss in the senior. We regret that the House was again baffled in the act of defending its wicket, and bowed to Founders in a game which resounded with the crashing of Brentwood timbers. We lost the Cross Country by a narrow margin, but Connorton ran a tremendous race to come second.

To Mr. Genge, Mr. Grey and Miss Webster we owe our best thanks for keeping the House on an even keel. Both House and School will badly miss Mr. Grey, whose enthusiasm for organising and perpetual patience were great assets.

New and surviving members of Brentwood now inherit our traditions and standards, and we trust that they will carry the torch as high as their predecessors.

Wilfred G. Lund, House Captain.

HARVEY HOUSE

The year began exceedingly well, with everyone settling down very quickly. Our activities were packed from start to finish. In the sphere of Sport two Rugby Teams, '90 lbs.' and '105 lbs.', were fielded, as were two Soccer Teams. The results were not always in our favour, but we did our best.

Mr. Marshall and Miss Cashman were welcome additions to the House Staff and it is unfortunate that both could only stay for one year. Miss Cashman has been a tower of strength tending to the welfare of the boys, while Mr. Marshall was for ever trying to beat Murdoch II round the Cross Country or to coach Slottow at Soccer.

Hallowe'en saw the usual number of bangs and explosions, as well as bloated stomachs the following day. The Fall Term ended with the Christmas Dinner, which everyone thoroughly enjoyed and will long remember.

The Spring Term had its ups and downs. The new Common Room had plenty of use and at one time two table tennis tables were going continuously. The hobbies rooms were also well patronized and many cars and planes emerged in various shapes and sizes. Inter-House Soccer matches, Boxing and the Senior Cross Country were additional attractions.

The Summer Term saw everyone out on the field trying for standards. The Junior Cross Country was run, Barker coming a very good first. Some Cricket Matches were played and the results were, on the whole, in our favour. The Scouts and Cubs were active, of course, throughout the year. Harvey had been divided into four "Houses" — Mackenzie, Thompson, Fraser and Cook. This provided ample opportunity for competition.

A separate Sports Day for the Juniors was run this year and proved very successful. The results were as follows:—

100 Yards, under 10—

1. Wenman II; 2. Thorp II; 3. Code II; 4. Boardman (15.6 s.)

100 Yards, under 12—

1. Kelly; 2. Nixon II; 3. Norcross; 4. Davidson.

- 100 Yards, under 14—
 1. Bapty I; 2. Gurney; 3. Sommers; 4. Bolli.
- 220 Yards, under 12—

- Cricket Ball, under 14—
 1. Johnson II; 2. Yaryan; 3. Sommerfeldt; 4. Radford II (71 yds.).
- Three-legged Race—
 1. Gould-Ratray; 2. Johnson I-Webster II; 3. Norris-Slottow.
- Sack Race—
 1. Bapty II; 2. Dafoe; 3. Timmis I; 4. Bedard.
- 440 Yards Consolation Race—
 1. Frost; 2. Crum; 3. Wilde; 4. Gould.
- Inter-House Relay, under 12—
 1. Mackenzie; 2. Thompson; 3. Cook; 4. Fraser.
- Inter-House Relay, under 13—
 1. Thompson; 2. Mackenzie; 3. Fraser; 4. Cook.
- Inter-House Relay, open—
 1. Mackenzie; 2. Cook; 3. Thompson; 4. Fraser.
- Inter-House Result—
 1. Mackenzie (168 pts.); 2. Thompson (141 pts.); 3. Fraser (70 pts.);
 4. Cook (65 pts.). W. N. H.

THE DEBATING SOCIETY

This year we have had some success with the Society, although during the Summer Term it has given place to other more athletic pastimes. Unfortunately three boys, Lund I, Devlin and Bier, have had to bear the brunt of the speaking. The senior forms have been noticeably apathetic in their response. However, the Society has enjoyed lively debates on 'Segregation in the U.S.A.' and the burning issue of Capital Punishment. Fulton has treated us to a learned and impassioned plea against western intervention in Tibet, but the suggestion that the world would have been better if Columbus had drowned has foundered, in spite of Bier's views on the decadence of the U.S.A.

M. A. N.

CHESS CLUB

Considerable interest has been shown in this game by both the serious-minded and those with a more light-hearted approach, some games being won by skill and others by talk. The Ladder had to be extended to take twenty-five contestants, and, although some were purely nominal rungs, several players showed promise and challenges were enthusiastic in the first term. Noteworthy was the "Pilling counter-challenge system" by which a player who finds himself losing immediately re-challenges, thus causing a perpetual change-over and limiting upward progress. Meetings were usually devoted to ordinary play between members, except for the occasion when the promoter undertook to give a Simultaneous Display and managed to obtain wins against all but the wary Woollends. The Open Competition was won by L. P. Hudson, who beat H. Watson in the final. P. M. P.

ART

Art in the School has seen quite an eventful year. Three exhibitions have been staged, the first, which held a great deal of variety, in the Christmas Term, and the other two in the Summer.

The last was, perhaps, the best attended, and most certainly the most competitive. The best picture was exhibited by Barker of Shell A. He was closely followed by Johnson II, Webster II and Timmis I.

Art Prizes this year were awarded to Johnson II and Webster II for their high standard of work throughout. A. L. G.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

Grateful appreciation is expressed to Mr. Grey, our President, for his help in organizing the Club at the beginning of the Fall Term.

This year four new boys joined the Club and were taught the art of taking, developing and printing pictures. Work was done for the School in developing, printing and enlarging during the year, and results were especially gratifying in connection with the Cadet Inspection.

The dark room instructors were D. Spilsbury, R. Yeakel and W. Bier.

The Photography Club has much to offer as a most interesting hobby, and it is hoped that it will continue to grow in the future.

W. Bier, Secretary.

PROJECTION CLUB

This year has been one of great improvement for the Projection Club. Through the generosity of the Parents' Auxiliary a new Bell and Howell Projector, complete with twin speakers, was given to the School. As a result our showings have been virtually trouble-free, and the audiences have become much more appreciative than in the past.

"High Society," "Romeo and Juliet," "Julius Caesar" and "The Vanishing Prairie" are a few examples of the films which were shown. In addition sports instructional films were featured as well as various educational films from the Public Library, B.C. Electric and Shell Oil Co.

Special thanks go to Mr. Grey for his valuable guidance and assistance throughout the year, and to all members who gave so freely of their time.

Lorne P. Hudson.

OLD BOYS' NOTES

Bursary Fund Established

Old Boys and Friends of the School are reminded that a Bursary Fund is now established. Names of applicants may be presented to the Executive of the Old Boys' Association for consideration. Enquiries regarding applicants or contributions to the fund should be addressed to the Secretary of the Association, c/o the School.

DAVID BALLANTYNE'S academic record since leaving University School is a notable one. At U.B.C. he obtained his B.Com. and then proceeded to Washington State, where he took his M.Sc. (Agricultural Economics). At present he is attending the University of Maryland, where this year he will be granted his Ph.D. in Horticulture, specializing in Plant Physiology.

Those who remember DAVID MOILLIET on the football field will be glad to know that he is still at it. A team from the R.C.N. participated in a tournament in Bermuda and were beaten 8-3 in the final by the Bermuda Athletic Association. "Moose" Moilliet towered in the line-out as of yore and STEPHEN QUEALE also lent powerful support.

Among recent visitors to the School from out of town were I. M. DRUM (Calgary), R. C. COLEMAN (Montreal), C. S. CLARK and E. C. BOVEY (Toronto) and G. W. COGHLIN (San Francisco).

"Gus" Coghlin brought news of MARTIN HUDEC and his brother THEO and of BRIAN GRAVES, all residents of San Francisco.

PARENTS' AUXILIARY

President — Mr. B. H. Roberts
Secretary — Mrs. M. Andrews

The Parents' Auxiliary to University School has had an active year. Membership has increased substantially and at all times we have enjoyed enthusiastic support from the School itself.

Money has been raised by membership dues, donations, cake sales and match sales. As a result of the success of these efforts the Auxiliary has been able to continue to support activities which it initiated last year, as well as to branch out.

For the second year we were able to present the General Progress prizes at Speech Day. On the same day the Information Booth was again installed in Harvey House.

The first clothing exchange sale has taken place and we are sure that this project will grow and give valuable service. Another first was our donation to the Cubs. Fifteen pairs of garters were made for the Cadet Corps. We also sponsored an essay contest and two prizes were presented.

Our major project was the purchase of a projector for the School.

M. A., Secretary.

(The School cannot praise too warmly the self-sacrificing efforts of these Ladies and Gentlemen, who do so much to promote our welfare. —Ed.).
